

An Introductory Session on 'AI for Seniors'

Organised by the Wilmslow U3A

When: 9th September 2026 – 1400 to 1600. A two-hour practical and entertaining session for knowledge transfer and confidence building.

Where: An allocated room in the Wilmslow United Reformed Church, Chappel Lane. Sk9 1PR.

Contact: Bob Rajan at Wilmslow U3A. <https://wilmslow.u3asite.uk/contact-us/>

Please let us know your intention to attend, no later than 7 August 2026. Numbers of attendees are limited by the room available to us.

1. Welcome and House Keeping	Peter Highfield, Wilmslow U3A Chairman.	5 minutes
2. An Introduction to the Session	Bob Rajan Ice breaker and about the session.	10 Minutes
3. The future of Artificial Intelligence	Alistair Sutcliffe A brief description of how AI works, including the current large language models (LLMs), with a review of the socio-economic consequences of AI for the society.	40minutes
4. Comfort/Tea Break		15minutes
5. Hands on!	Michael Palmer What you want it to do? - Ask questions (please come prepared, even better, let us have your questions in advance, so that we can prepare slides for a clear visual show on the screen in the room).	40 minutes
6. Round up and End of the session	Presenters and attendees. Open discussion. Feedback form.	10 minutes